Dedication

To Abraham, Jerry and Esther Hicks

Acknowledgements

Much appreciation and gratitude goes to Susan Johnson whose eye for great beauty and talent for creating, add many dimensions to this book.

To my business partner and dear friend, Jeanna Gabellini, who treats me as if I walk on water, thank you for loving me and always holding me so big. To my son, Jeffrey, who's taught me what unconditional love is all about, you DO walk on water and I love you more than more! To the light of my life, Robin, without your unwavering love and support, I would not be where I am today. I love you madly. To Peggy, my mom, and Mac, my Dad, thank you for bringing me into this incredible world. I love you. And to Abraham, Jerry and Esther Hicks, who literally changed my life forever, 'there is great love here for you'

*A pearl is cultivated from a grain of sand;
sand being the contrast or the discontent from which a desire is born and from which a knowing – a 'pearl of wisdom' comes.
These pearls are cultivated from many sources over a lifetime through experience and introspect.*

It is with appreciation and gratitude that I share my pearls with you.

Our thoughts and feelings are the colors that paint our reality.

*Passion is inspiration at full tilt.
In following your passion, you make the impossible possible.*

*Embrace life as a jewel instead of a battlefield.
Then landmines become gold mines.*

Life provides the avenue that reveals your true spirit.

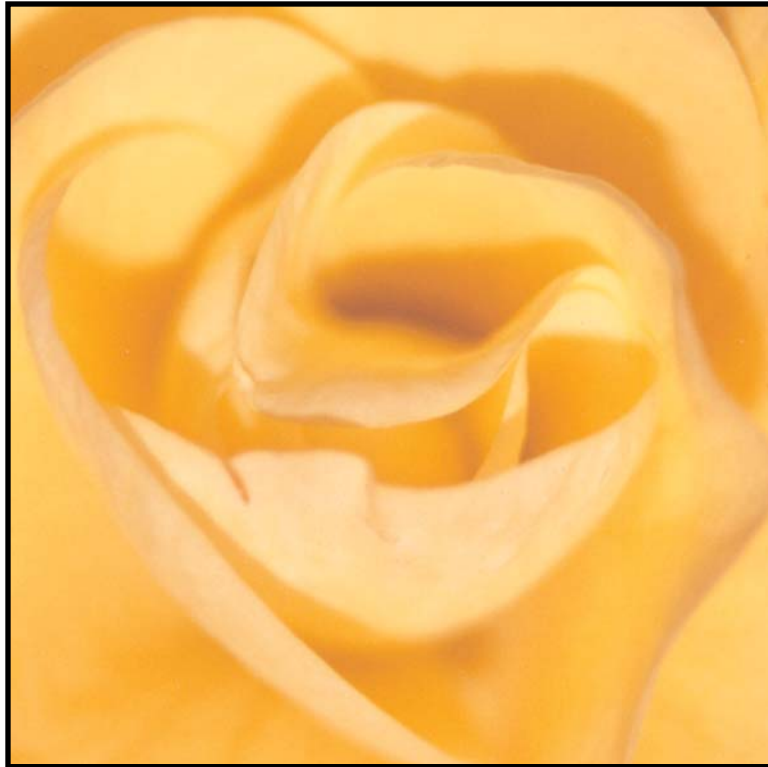

Dare to visualize what you want and hold that thought.

The parts of ourselves we refuse to see have the greatest influence on who we become.

A day without laughter is like a day without sunshine.

Good is never enough when you know better is a possibility

Getting up when you've failed is a victory.

As food fuels your body, so does laughter fuel your soul.

Take more time to laugh each day.

In the pain of one door closing behind you, there is even greater opportunity in the door that is opening before you.

Your attitude can make you or break you.

You get to choose.

If the world is our playground, why aren't we playing more?

Your relationship with others is the mirror to your relationship with you.

*I thought I was here to change the world.
I found I was here to change myself.*

The only thing standing between you and your dream is your belief that it's possible, and your willingness to go after it.

*When you follow your heart,
the only person you need approval from is yourself.*

The music of the universe consistently plays in the key of joy - your joy.

We have a great opportunity to let everyone we meet be our practice ground for love.

Communication is in the silence between the thoughts and the words.

*If life is a dance,
then friends are the music.*

There is power in silence.

Dare to challenge every limiting belief about yourself and watch the true unlimited you reveal itself.

Where love prevails, judgement cannot exist.

Why settle for just being the star in the play called 'Your Life' when you can be the writer, the editor and director as well?

*There is only one moment worth living,
and that is the present moment.
Live it fully.*
